

Purpose of the WRP

The Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) works in a variety of ways to bring about change and support the employment of people with disabilities. Primarily, the WRP serves to:

- Bring students with disabilities into the employment process, both through their schools and through contact with WRP employers.
- Help college Career Centers and Disability Services Offices to engage with the issue of employment for their students with disabilities.
- Function as a pipeline to bring new talent into the federal government and fill mission critical jobs.
- Break down attitudinal barriers in the workplace.
